

Welcome to Gayton!

Ways to Serve

In our Neighborhood, In our City, In our State

Vacation Bible School:

June 27 - July 1 | 9am-noon

Each June, about 200 kids from neighborhoods right around Gayton participate in Vacation Bible School. They spend a fun-filled week experiencing God through crafts, stories, games, snacks, and more.

VBS volunteers make the week meaningful for kids by leading crews, rocking babies, serving snacks, singing and dancing onstage and making crafts. Find out how you can serve kids at Vacation Bible School this summer.

Rebuilding Together: April 30 | 8am-5pm

Rebuild's focus is to bring lasting change to a community by providing home improvements and safety and wellness enhancements for the elderly and disabled - rebuilding homes, and rebuilding lives. A team from Gayton will serve at the home of Ms.

Lipscomb this year, and projects are available for all skill levels. Find more information online.

Gayton Family Mission Trip:

July 6-10 & August 10-14

Since 2011, Gayton has sent a team of families on mission each summer. Participants span multiple generations, including toddlers, grandparents, and everyone in between. Members of the Gayton family serve side-by-side, sharing the love of Christ in word and deed with people throughout our region. This year's trips to Roanoke will provide an amazing opportunity for families to grow in community with one another, for kids to participate as full-fledged missionaries and for God to use each person's gifts to grow His Kingdom.

WE are the Church

Much is being said about the Church, its focus, and its purpose. We'll explore some of the key components necessary for Gayton to live out its mission - Every Life Changed by Jesus. We Are The Church!

- April 17 Contribute - John 21:15-17
- April 24 Connect - Luke 5:1-11
- May 01 We Are The Church - I Cor. 12:12-13

SLC Nominations Open

Nominations for Gayton's Servant Leadership Council (SLC) are being accepted from members through May 8. The SLC meets monthly and is responsible for the strategic direction of the church. Members of the SLC should be godly men and women who are servant leaders of the church in life, thought and ministry. Candidates will be presented to the congregation for a vote at the June 12th business meeting.
